SIXTH SUNDAY in ORDINARY TIME February 12, 2012

Whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do everything for the glory of God.

— 1 Corinthians 10:31

THEME:

Jesus manifests the powerful, healing love of God by curing the leper who was forced to live under severe restrictions by Jewish legislation. He turned to Jesus in his need and was filled with joy. We are called to imitate the healing and compassionate Jesus.

A FAMILY PERSPECTIVE

Family life is about decisions. The leper in today's gospel knew this when he said to Jesus, "If you will, you can make me clean." Jesus knew this when He said, "I do will it." Love is not an emotion. It is a decision to be with and for another person in "good times and bad," even when we don't feel like it.

Did you know that Corpus Christi has CCD classes for special needs students? The three parishes in Wethersfield started the program back in 1989 and it has been housed at Corpus for most of that time. Students with special needs learn the gospel message through hands-on experiences, arts & crafts projects, videos, singing, dancing and praying. Over the years, the program has prepared several students to receive their First Communion as well as Confirmation.

Evening prayer was established in the third century. ### YOUR HELP IS NEEDED!

Please join us at the next Social Action meeting on Tuesday, February 21st at 7 PM in Our Lady’s Hall. We hope to see you on February 21st because your help is greatly needed. You can do as little or as much as you want. Please consider donating a little time to this very important ministry in our parish. The gospel tells us our lives will be judged by our response to the ‘least of these.’ For more information about the Social Action Committee please call:

Nancy Kiely at 860-721-0197.

There are two approaches in modern Christian tradition on how to respond to suffering of peoples: works of mercy and social action. When we see people hurting, our instinct is to help, such as how people come together as a community during natural disasters. We perform works of mercy by directly helping others. The Corporal Works of Mercy are to feed the hungry, give drink to the thirsty, clothe the naked, visit the sick, shelter the homeless, visit the imprisoned, and bury the dead. By following the works of mercy, we will become the persons God meant us to be. But we must also continually work for justice to help find solutions to the social problems that cause people to be homeless, hungry, imprisoned, etc.
